FOREWORD

Our Holy Father loves youth. He loves them to such a degree that he wishes to be their champion. At the Vatican he asked the youth of Rome, "Will you be the youth of the Pope?" They answered "Yes" and our Holy Father lovingly promised in return, "Then We will be the Pope of youth." This promise was made not only to the youth of Rome, but to all who love him and wish to belong to him. He feels that the peace and prosperity of the future depend upon the youth of the world.

We at Lauralton have heard our Holy Father's promise and we wish very much to be his. But we reflect that to be the youth of the Pope requires "clear principles, great personal courage and an unbreakable union between religion and life." During our years at Lauralton, our teachers, through instruction, guidance and constant prayer, have been working to instill these very principles to transform us into young adults ready and willing to meet our Holy Father's challenge. Now we must put this training into practice.

Since education is a "social and not merely an individual activity," our Holy Father rightly expects that we shall share the fruits of the precious advantages afforded us. In our graduating class of today are the wives and mothers, the religious, and the business women of tomorrow. As we fashion our future, we are committed to respond to our Holy Father's appeal to ". . . go forward . . . go into the forefront . . . go and enlighten . . . go and teach." With humble dependence on God's grace, we hope to fulfill our Holy Father's commission.

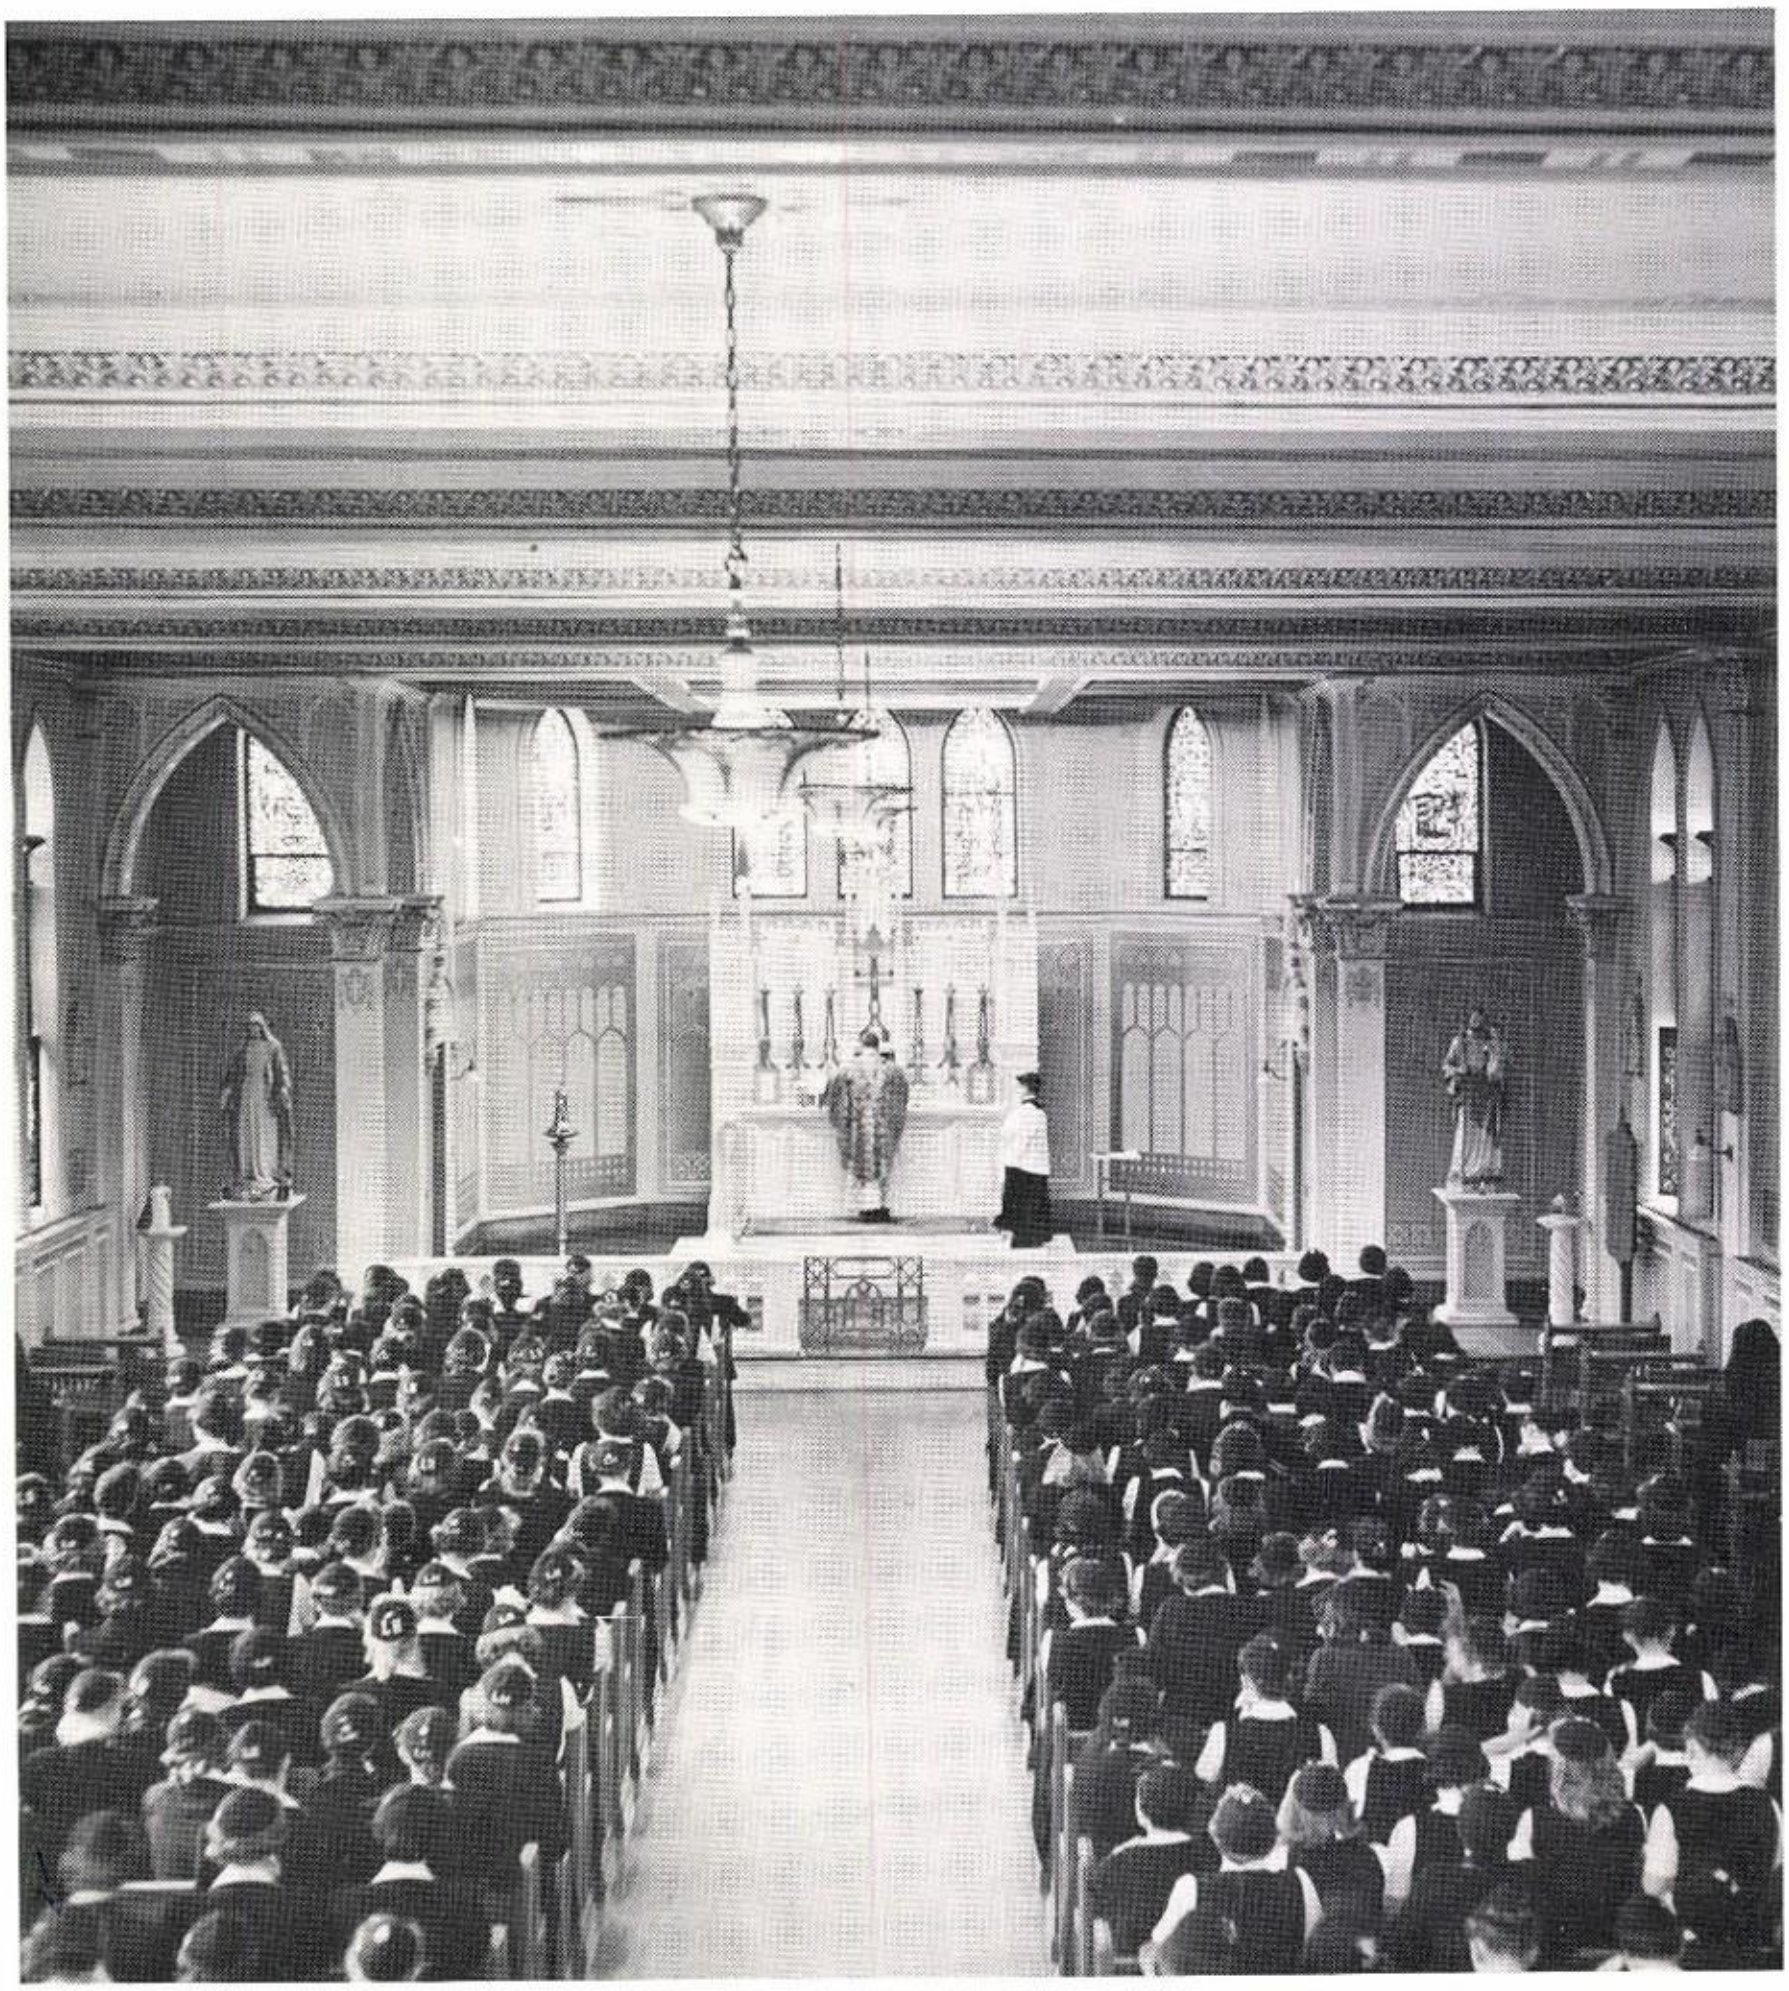
CATHOLIC YOUTH WEEK



At noon each day during Catholic Youth Week, October 28-31, the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass was celebrated in our chapel by our chaplain, Father Sherer. Father Maynard and Father Killeen were available for confessions; and the new regulation concerning the Eucharistic fast made it possible for us to receive Holy Communion daily.

ORGANIZATIONS

"Achievement of social unity through the collaboration of . . . groups in the interest of the common good."

— Pope Pius XII

SODALITY

The Sodality of Our Lady, affiliated with the Roman Prima Primaria, aims to foster in its members an ardent devotion, reverence and filial love for the Blessed Virgin Mary. Here at Lauralton, our Sodality holds weekly spiritual meetings. The Apostolic, Eucharistic, Marian, and Publicity Committees alternately take charge of these meetings.

Sophomores, juniors, and seniors who wish to join the Sodality enter a probationary period during which they are obliged to learn the rules of the Sodality and study the "way of life" they plan to take on. This "way of life" is the Sodalist's first step to her future life with "Jesus through Mary." From the moment of their admission to probation, the aspirants share in the privileges, indulgences, and other spiritual graces granted to Sodalists.

Various projects for the year included: spreading devotion to the family rosary, keeping "Christ in Christmas," presenting an assembly commemorating the "Church in Silence" and sponsoring a Catholic literature drive. The annual May crowning climaxed the year's activities.

SODALITY OFFICERS

Loretta Bielen, Second Assistant; Ann O'Neil, Prefect; and Liz Ann Scanlon, First Assistant, prepare the next meeting with Sister Maria Magdalen.

Carol Saksa (Chairman of the Marian Committee), Margee Curley (Chairman of the Eucharistic Committee), and Peggy Sasso (Chairman of the Publicity Committee) discuss future projects.

Sister Maria Magdalen presides over a weekly meeting of the Senior Sodality.

Margee Curley, Loretta Bielen, Pat Dargon, Sue Stubbs, Liz Ann Scanlon, Sister Maria Magdalen, Ann O'Neil, Father Sherer, Carol Sullivan, Virginia Lane, and Carol Freeman enjoy a panel discussion at a joint meeting of the Junior and Senior Sodalities.

TARCISIANS

Every girl at Lauralton is a member of the League of the Tarcisians. We, as apostles of the Social Reign of the Sacred Heart, strive to bring our school and homes closer to the Heart of Jesus by becoming closer to Him ourselves.

Each day as a part of our morning prayers, we renew our consecration to His Sacred Heart and invoke His aid through aspirations at the beginning of each class. To further extend this devotion, at the beginning of each year all classes enthrone the Sacred Heart in the chapel and in each home room. Each class spends half an hour of adoration before the Blessed Sacrament once a month.

These customs, as well as the monthly renewal of the Act of Consecration to the Sacred Heart, show that we Lauralton girls are proud to be members of an organization which is so pleasing to His Sacred Heart.

"We offer Thee our prayer . . .

our play . . ."
— Tarcisian Hymn

TARCISIAN REPRESENTATIVES

Standing: Barbara Filosa, Louise Schubba, Eileen Cormier, Helen Kiesel, Leila Sue Casey, Jane Irving, Joan Meuser, Beverly Tanner.

Kneeling: Lorraine Jarusinsky, Dale Garrison, Margaret O'Neill, Gay Ryan, Vennie Mangiaracina, Joan Ellis, Marilee Timothy.

MISSIONS

Lauralton's Mission Organization is actively aware of the needs of the Missions and it takes definite steps to alleviate these needs. By contributing monthly dues, every Lauralton girl is able to provide her bit for the missions. Mission Day is always the organization's biggest and most profitable project of the year. This year, for the first time, we were able to include in our endeavors our own Mercy Mission, recently established at Pinehurst, North Carolina.

Under Sister Elvira's able direction, cancelled stamps are saved, clothing is collected and packed, and financial aid is allocated through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

This society sends an enthusiastic expression of gratitude: "How shall I begin! If I should try to tell you how grateful I am, this page would be filled with 'Thank you.' "

From a missionary in Japan, we learn: "Everyone was so happy, and I always ask them to pray for you and our many friends in the United States who are missionaries in keeping us alive."

A priest from a Negro mission in Georgia writes, "God is pleased for clothing His little ones and supporting His missions. Your thoughtful contribution is a great help to us, for without your help we could do nothing."

We could not resist this gentle appeal from a Maryknoll sister: "Our new school under construction in Guatemala is a tremendous undertaking and we need your prayers that God will grant us the grace to plan it wisely, and that somehow the money will be supplied to meet our great financial needs."

These are but a few of the many gratifying messages received in acknowledgment of help from the Missions. Together with prayers and sacrifice we are able to serve God through His children, our less fortunate brothers and sisters.

MISSION REPRESENTATIVES

STUDENT COUNCIL

Every Monday, in a closed meeting of Lauralton Hall's Student Council, a small group of the Council's Officers and Representatives meet and make the ideas of the students official.

"May we have a pencil sharpener?" asks one homeroom. Another suggests that the Council try sponsoring some new clubs at school. The group discusses every question that comes up, and upon reaching a decision with the principal, makes it known to the school through weekly reports.

So works the Student Government Association behind the scenes. Celebrating its fifth birthday this year, Student Government can look back on five years of achievement, which have earned for it the distinction of becoming one of Lauralton's most important organizations.

The Student Council, which consists of four officers and a representative from each homeroom, acts as a mouthpiece for the individual student. Representatives especially, who receive most of the students' requests, must be on their toes for any animadversion. They are faced with such statements as "The soap in the dispenser in the lavies is too weak" and "Why can't the Student Council give us a longer vacation?"

Open meetings of the Council are held every month, where each girl has the opportunity of seeing her government in action. Any member of the student body is free at these meetings to offer constructive criticism or solutions for whatever problems may exist in the school. The final open meeting of the year is traditionally devoted to the inauguration of the Student Council Officers for the following year.

Activities of the Student Council include the enforcement of the rules found in the Handbook, an annual dance, "Cupid's Capers," and an active publicity committee for all school affairs.

Here at Lauralton we can say that the Student Government is truly a government of the students, by the students, and, most especially, for the students.

OFFICERS

THE LIBRARY

"Seat of Wisdom, all these rows and rows of books share the Truth with thee" is the aspiration and the inspiration of the Library Club of Lauralton. Under the guidance of Mary, Our Lady of Letters, the club publishes The Reading Lamp, a special newspaper which helps to keep the faculty and the students informed of the various library activities. Included in this paper are informative reviews and the list of newly-acquired books.

The library is a gold-mine when we have "digging" to do. It is here one finds seniors earnestly poring through scientific periodicals for "chem cards," or gathering material for oral reports in English; here the juniors do research for biology projects. The sophomores investigate the life and times of Julius Caesar, and the freshmen discover interesting facts in World History.

But research for assignments is not the only reason that students frequent the library, for the "rows and rows of books" also offer material for relaxation and enjoyment.

LIBRARY OFFICERS AT WORK: Maureen O'Brien, Vice-President, previews a new filmstrip; Kathryn Coviello, Treasurer, types catalog card; Judy Pinto, President, verifies information; Rosa DeLauro, Secretary, puts Lauralton Library imprint on new books; Patricia Rapp, Historian, processes books just back from the bindery.

"The book we have been waiting for!"
Eileen Bruzas at the desk; Peggy O'Neill and Sharon Thaler charge out books.

Judy Pinto, Joanne Tucci, Roberta Gallagher file records.

HIGHLIGHTS

The staffs of Highlights, the official news publication of Lauralton Hall, by maintaining journalistic standards, aim to uphold Christian principles through their editorials, news coverage, and features. Their efforts to attain perfection have once again gained an All-Catholic award, annually given to best Catholic school papers by the National Catholic Press Association.

Highlights, through the combined efforts of the news, feature, sports, copy and makeup, art, circulation and exchange, typing, picture and advertising staffs, is published four times yearly. Each year staff appointments are eagerly sought by seniors, juniors, sophomores, and freshmen. The appointments are made each fall after the previous spring's applicants are considered on the basis of interest, ability, and responsibility.

Covering everything from spiritual counsel to the latest records, from club news to "Corn Patch," the paper is a source of enjoyment and interest to all its readers.

Mrs. Dorothy L. Starrett, Faculty Adviser; Mary Ann Moraniec, Editor-in-Chief; Maureen Reardon, Associate Editor.

Margee Curley, Picture Editor and Staff Photographer; Carol Eagan, Copy and Makeup Editor; Mimi LaTaif, Art Editor.

Barbara Filosa, Typing Editor; Joan Ellis, Advertising Manager; Mariette Colla, Circulation and Exchange Editor.

THE LAURALTON

Deadlines and worries are all behind us as proudly we offer you the finished product, The LAURALTON '58.

Captions, write-ups and re-writes were the problem children the Literary Staff had to cope with before the copy became sufficiently manageable for publication. The Business Staff (see page 102), as they tuck away the extra ad blanks and straighten out the accounts, remember the many persuasive tactics they had to employ to collect ads and sell yearbooks. Cover design, layouts, dividers and color — all are now realities to the Art Staff. The Typing Staff, who clicked off the copy which finally made the grade, still groan when they recall the often undecipherable penmanship of the Literary Staff.

We treasure the experience of getting the LAURALTON ready. We hope the completed book will bring you as much fun as the book-in-preparation brought us. If in later years The LAURALTON recaptures for you a pleasant memory, if it recalls a dear friend, or renews a bright hope, then we do not regret the "headaches," the panicky moments, the pressure of time under which we labored until we finally emerged to meet the last deadline.

Carol Ugolik, Editor-in-Chief.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

Here at Lauralton, extensive opportunities to enjoy the beauties of music are made available through Choral Clubs, Lauralettes, Theory classes, Liturgical music, and private piano and voice instructions.

The Choral Club is open to all students. Through practice meetings, the members grow in singing skill and music appreciation. During the year the Club sponsors a Christmas program, a trip to the Metropolitan Opera in New York, and a spring concert.

The Lauralettes are a group of girls from the Senior Choral Club who have a talent and desire for harmonizing in a small group.

The Theory Course, offered only to freshmen, is a general study of all forms of music, which aims to bring out the aesthetic value so that each girl may find the kind she enjoys most. Liturgical Music, the study and singing of church music, is under the direction of Sister Agnes Marie.

Private instruction is available to girls desiring a more intense course in either voice or piano.

CHORAL CLUB OFFICERS

Standing: Joan Lucas, Treasurer; Sandra Nacci, Treasurer; Liz Anne Scanlon, President; Sue Casey, Secretary; Dale Garrison, Vice-President; Sue Stubbs, Secretary; Cathy O'Brien, President; Sue Bark, Vice-President.

Seated: Michele Mark and Joyce Santorelli, Accompanists.

Sister Agnes Marie accompanies the Liturgical Music Group.

Theory enthusiasts discuss projects with Sister Edna Marie.

DRAMATIC CLUB

Formerly "The Thespians," "Our Lady's Jesters" sponsored dramatic activities for 1957-58 with Virginia Boyd serving as president and Sister Peter Marie acting as adviser.

The Club is divided into three departments: acting, staging, and costuming. Each fall, interested sophomores and juniors enter on a probationary period. Requisitions for membership are talent, ability, interest, and willingness to devote time.

Yearly activities include Father-Daughter Night, a Hallowe'en party brewed for freshmen and their dads, and a Christmas pageant offered to the public to propagate the true meaning of Christmas. The final activity is the production of a spring play for students and the public.

"Footlights," the Club's mimeographed newspaper, edited by Roberta Gallagher, is published periodically featuring news of Jesters' activities. Secular entertainments such as popular Broadway shows, plays and movies are also reviewed by the members of the Club.

OFFICERS

ART CLUB

The magnetic array of vivid colors draws the passer-by into the tiny retreat of Lauralton's aspiring artists — the art room. A warm atmosphere of quiet industry prevails as the future "Raphaels" let loose their talent and imagination and exploit the works of the masters. The attractive bulletin boards reveal the variety of interests which art holds for all.

OFFICERS: Peggy Sasso, President; Pat Yablonicky, Treasurer; Janet Theil, Vice-President; Geraldine Foucault, Secretary.

CERAMICS CLUB

The ceramics room harbors a multitude of ghostlike figurines. Each figurine is patiently awaiting its final firing after being carefully scraped, painted, and glazed by nimble fingers.

The informal atmosphere of this room lends itself to buzzing activity. A sense of accomplishment mounts as each girl anxiously removes the finished product from the oven — her own little "masterpiece."

OFFICERS: Eileen Cormier, Secretary; Kathy Toronto, Vice-President; Judy Ewanietz, President; Sister M. Therese, Instructor; Betty Abbott, Treasurer.

DEBATING CLUB

To foster the growth of an articulate Catholic laity is the primary purpose of the Debating Club at Lauralton Hall. The year opened with the adoption of a new constitution which embodies the true spirit of Catholic forensics. Bi-weekly meetings are conducted in parliamentary fashion. Some of the vital topics discussed at these meetings include the success of the United Nations and the outlaw of the Communist Party. A special group prepares the debate on the topic for the year.

SPANISH CLUBS

The Spanish Clubs at Lauralton fill that special need for a broader knowledge of Spain — its customs and its people. Clubs are formed in different classrooms where students are interested, and meetings are held during class time once a month. Some of the Club's varied activities include the singing of Spanish songs, the presenting of plays and films, and the playing of Spanish games. Not only does the Spanish Club give pleasure, but also it affords the novice at Spanish an opportunity to enrich her vocabulary and to further comprehension through conversation.

OFFICERS: Carol Ugolik, Secretary; Betty Anne Turco, President.

FRENCH CLUB

Those interested in "la langue francaise" have ample opportunity to supplement class activities through the French Club. The aim of the club is to enrich the cultural background of its members and to offer further occasions for aural-oral practice in the foreign tongue. Monthly meetings are held after school once a month for juniors and seniors interested in French. French songs, folk dances, plays, games, and records all help to stimulate interest in and enjoyment of the language.

OFFICERS: Judi Perisky, Treasurer; Martha Sullivan, Vice-President; Cathy McGee, Secretary; Pat Dargon, President.

LATIN CLUB

A Latin fashion show, a play based on a classical theme, and a Roman banquet — all are activities enjoyed by the members of Lauralton Hall's two Latin Clubs.

The junior group consists of interested sophomore Latin students, who meet once a month after school. The senior group, the Virgilian Forum, meets during class time, and is open to third and fourth year students.

Both groups aim to gain a more thorough knowledge of Roman life, customs, and language; to understand better the practical and cultural values of Latin; and to interest fellow students therein.

Through their various projects, Latin students find the realization of these aims fun and almost painless!

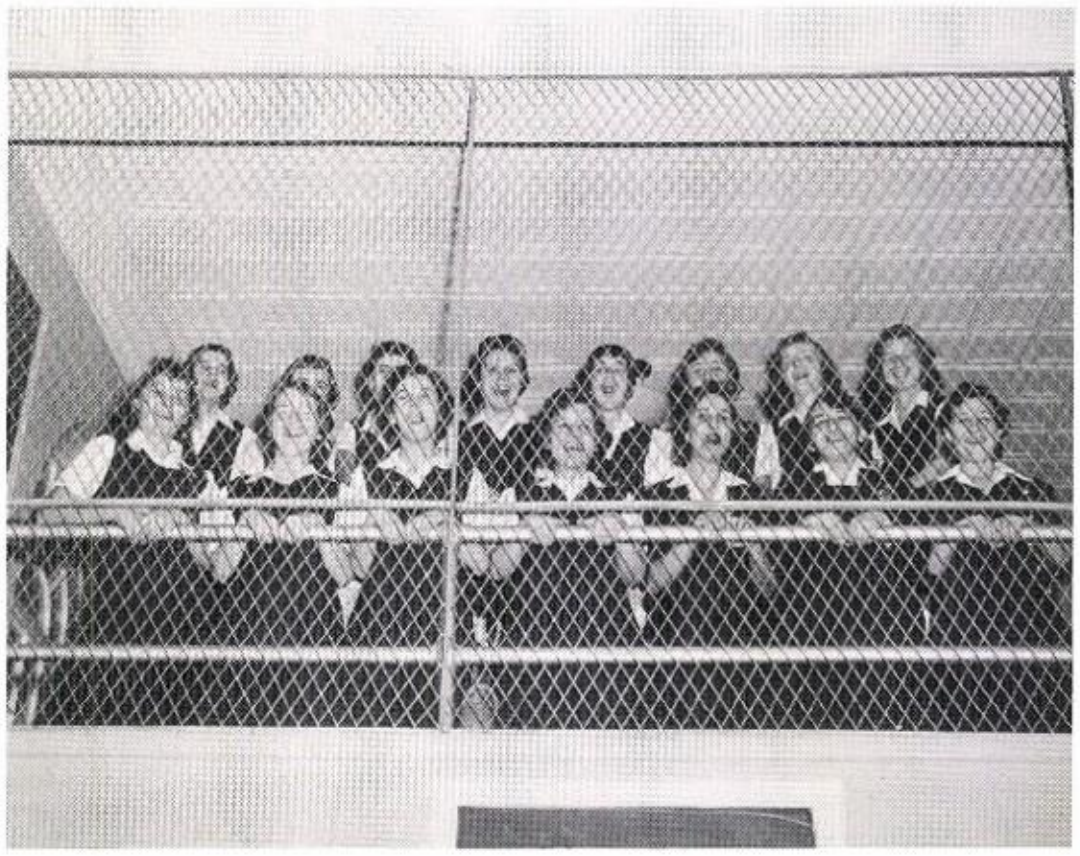
OFFICERS: Pauline Gravel, President; Barbara Kennedy, Vice-President; Miss M. Conroy, Adviser; Cathy Kalweit, Secretary.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Athletic Association, under the direction of Miss Constantini, endeavors to form well-rounded personalities by teaching its members how to compete in games with a true Christian spirit. Fall brings our newest outdoor sport, speedball, followed by basketball and the aches and pains of calisthenics during the winter. Spring ushers in softball, badminton, and tennis. Through these activities, we learn that co-operation, sportsmanship, and school spirit invariably lead to victory. The Faculty-Student game and Blue-White games are just a few of the events on the AA calendar enjoyed this year.

Rosemary Green, Secretary; Mary Etta Higgins, President; Mimi LaTaif, Vice-President; Miss M. Costantini, Instructor; McGee Ryan, Treasurer; Sally Kamykowski, Captain Blue Team; Jane Ziegler, Captain White Team.

Will it?



"Everyone for Lauralton stand up and holler!"

VARSITIES

Lauralton's athletic endeavors reach their peak in the field hockey and basketball varsities. Both varsities follow a rigid schedule of bi-weekly practice at which time various plays are taught to the players. Coupled with this newly-polished skill and teamwork, our varsities have matched their opponents' determination and ability. The Hockey Varsity ended the season undefeated.

After a series of postponements following the numerous snow storms, the Basketball Varsity continued this victorious spirit.

Urged on by the cheerleaders and students, Lauralton's Varsity activities typify the truly Christian spirit of fair play.

HOCKEY

Standing: Louise Garofalo (manager), Sally Kamykowski, Connie Koons, Kathy Toronto, Sue Gibbons, Jane Ziegler (co-captain), Joanne Garofalo (co-captain), Sharon Thaler, Dee Vetrano, Barbara Hughes, McGee Ryan, Pat Maher (manager).

Kneeling: Arline Fritz, Marianne Minutole, Julie Barone, Ann O'Neill, Mary Etta Higgins, Eunice Morganroth, Janet Thiel, Dale Garrison.

BASKETBALL

Sitting: Cathy Tarinelli, Dee Vetrano, Dale Garrison, Janet Thiel, Jane Ziegler, Mary Etta Higgins.

CHEERLEADERS

"Hep, hep, let's go!" — a cheer for the cheerleaders. Chosen at the end of the year by the faculty after rigorous training, the cheerleaders can almost call "spirit" their middle name. Their enthusiasm, pep and vigor are manifested to their fullest at every pep rally and varsity game.

We thank the cheerleaders for helping to make "everybody for Lauralton stand up and holler."

Kneeling: Gail DeMarco, Barbara Kennedy, Judy Cholko, Denise Hutchinson, Marion Onorato.

Standing: Ginger Barbieri, Kathy Hurley, Nancy Greene, co-captain; Jackie Schwab, co-captain; Cynthia Bosses, Ginny Noia.

FIELD DAY

Excitement and enthusiasm run high at Lauralton when the end of the year brings our long-awaited "Field Day."

The day's fun begins with an AA Assembly, where those girls who have earned sufficient points are awarded varsity and tournament pins, emblems, letters, bars or stars. Anyone could tell at a glance that Field Day is no ordinary day of school, for girls in their gym suits are everywhere on the campus — eating their lunch of hot dogs, soda, and ice cream; watching the traditional Blue-White softball game; or participating themselves in games of their choice. The popularity of the seniors is evident, as yearbooks are passed from hand to hand to be signed.

The grand finale of Lauralton's "fun day," the Virginia Reel, is held on the softball field with everyone participating. Thus, Field Day climaxes the AA program.

"What's next? This is killing me!"

SENIOR RETREAT

Senior Retreat, that long-awaited interval of quiet contemplation, finally arrived. These were three days of careful consideration of ourselves, our ambitions, our obstacles. But above all they consisted of secluded moments spent in listening to or talking with an all-important Friend — God.

We will never again make a retreat so important, so vital to ourselves and our future. Here were laid the foundations of a lifetime. Now it is for us to build on these foundations. For the future will be one supported and strengthened by the decisions made and the graces given in this retreat.

"Another bell???" asks Father Ansbro.

Sheila Holland, Carol Ugolik, and Jane Ziegler thank Father Ansbro for a helpful retreat.

"The days that make us happy make us wise."

PARENTS' NIGHT

Fathers howled, we freshmen blushed and the Jesters wholeheartedly strove to make merry that Father-Daughter Night. Who would have thought fathers were skilled in such arts as potato balancing, clothes donning and fast eating?

At the Mother-Daughter Tea, our patient mothers weathered the storm of the "good old days" as we attempted to recreate such situations as "By the Sea" and "School Days."

With junior year came an opportunity for our parents and teachers to meet professionally. Individual parent-teacher conferences were held and our parents discovered the why's and how's of our studies.

Senior Parent Night came as an appropriate conclusion to our retreat. This occasion afforded our parents an insight into our choice of vocation.

These yearly meetings have presented our parents the opportunities to analyze our assets and liabilities and to see us as our teachers see us.

Our chaplain, Father Sherer, addresses our parents on Senior Parent Night.

A serious moment during the Senior Parent Night program.

Senior Parent Night — "Feed the hungry."

A TOUCH OF FANTASY

Loretta Bielen (General Chairman), Ginny Boyd (Decoration Chairman), Sylvia Donahoe (Refreshment Chairman), Barbara Panish (Bid Chairman), discuss plans with Sister Peter Marie, Junior Class Adviser.

"A Touch of Fantasy" was evident in Claven Auditorium on May 10, 1957, when the Class of 1958 held its Junior Prom. The decoration committee had transformed the stage into a magic garden with a large ice swan and a bubbling fountain surrounded by spring flowers. The moon and the stars had come inside for the evening and with the aid of the decoration committee adorned the tables and curtains of the auditorium. Hal Lindy's orchestra supplied the music. Carol Ugolik and her escort, Jimmy Zelle, were chosen to reign as King and Queen and were crowned by Loretta Bielen, general chairman, and her escort, Dick Corcoran. Members of the court were Judy Ewanietz, Una Foley, Susanne Stubbs and their escorts.

"The day may go but still the hands of memory weave blissful dreams . . ."

Cathy Callahan waits her turn, as Mary Tynan has her eyes tested.

IN HOME-MAKING . . .

The Home-Making course is something new at Lauralton. Its purpose is to develop the practical abilities of the girls so that they will be better equipped to fulfill their future role of Christian Mother-Educators. Personality study, grooming, clothing construction, home management, interior decorating and baby-sitting constitute the various phases of the course.

Next year the advanced Home Economics course open to Sophomores will include food preparation, nutrition, home nursing and consumer buying. In 1960 the course will be an elective for upper classes.

Located in the Sacred Heart Building, the Home Economics rooms are attractively furnished with blond oak sewing machines, cutting tables, chairs and cabinets. There is a fitting room with three-way, full length mirrors. Here the future modistes put the finishing touches to the garments which had become realities under their nimble fingers.

". . . may all here please Thee by practicing every virtue, so that they may one day be welcomed into Thy eternal home in heaven . . ."

Mission Accomplished: a glamorous social room!

In a formal dedication ceremony, Father Sherer blessed the room and opened its doors for our comfort, relaxation and pleasure.

Carol Eggers and Judy Ewanietz did a checkerboard job on the piano.

Peg Ference, Sue Stubbs, Sheilagh Coyne, Mary Ann Fishbein, Mimi La-Taif enjoy the last few minutes of lunch hour.

IN THE EXODUS OF THE BOARDERS . . .

Eight members of the Class of '58 have the distinction of being "the last of the boarders," a nostalgic little phrase which brings a touch of sadness . . .

Since Lauralton opened its doors in 1905, boarders have been an integral part of the school. It will indeed seem rather strange next year when the corridors of the residence hall no longer ring with the boarders' laughter, radios and general clamor . . .

As we depart, we wish to say "Thank you" to all who have helped to make Lauralton a part-time home.

Our boarders—Lois Krodel, Pat Hughes, Barbara Filosa, Dee Vetrano, Sue Gibbons, Mary Kay Teal, Jane Ziegler, Mimi LaTaif with their "Dorm Mother," Sister M. Corita.

AND IN THE END OF A TRADITION.

In September, 1955, a change was made in the Lauralton uniform.

The Class of '58 — "the last to lay the old aside."

The Class of '59 — "the first by whom the new are tried."

Now she's on the other side of the desk.

Miss Jacqueline Creighton, of the Class of '52, came in January to assist in the Math Department.

Over the years, it has become the custom of the Lauralton students to touch reverently the feet of the Crucified as they pass along the chapel corridor.
